Proj Summary: Golden Anniversary exhibition

Proj Details: This is a selected bi-annual exhibition as well as the Golden Anniversary of the organisation and it plans to show the best of their members work - it also includes selection for exhibition space as well as for the work itself. Auckland Handweavers Guild is affiliated to Creative Fibre (NZ) and this exhibition supports local members of both groups. This is being shown alongside an historical exhibition of Zena Abbott's work, teaching and involvement in Textile Arts in the 1960's and 70's.

Proj Summary: Opera in schools

Proj Details: The standard fee per school is $800 however there are some schools that do not have the ability to pay this especially small and low decile ones. Any grant they the organisation receives enables these schools to experience the rich art form of live theatre presented in such a way that makes opera fun and performed by professional artists. As a result of the previous funding given in 2003 they were able to take the performance to 10 schools in Waitakere City.

Proj Summary: Class Act Opera

Proj Details: Last year they had the Marriage of Figaro and it was absolutely hilarious and brilliantly performed. The children were enthralled. None of them had seen an opera before. For the rest of the term many of the children in the playground would be heard singing their conversation. It is very good and without the funding it is too expensive for this low decile school to have them
