CHAPTER 2

PUBLIC PLACES

201 Refuse Removal

201.1 No person shall cause to be carried, except between such hours as may be prescribed by the local authority by resolution, through, over or upon any public place any pigswill of food refuse or any other similar matter, except in a manner approved by the Engineer.

202 Obstructing Footways or Cycle Tracks

202.1 No person shall carry or convey any load on his shoulders or otherwise to the danger or obstruction of persons using any footway or cycle track, or ride, or drive or lead any cattle or drive any motor vehicle or motor cycle along any such footway or cycle track.

203 Packing or Unpacking Goods

203.1 No person shall without the prior consent of the local authority pack or unpack goods upon any public place.

204 Placing of Articles on Public Places

204.1 No person shall (except as provided in this or any other Part of this bylaw) leave standing or lying upon any public place any truck, wheelbarrow, vehicle, or other similar thing, or any packing case, crate, basket, cask, barrel, package, or any other encumbrance whatsoever so as to constitute an obstruction thereon.

204A Advertising Signs

204A.1 No person shall leave or place or cause to be left or placed on any public place unless specifically authorised so to do by the Chief Executive Officer, any advertising sign, notice or placard, or any vehicle carrying or displaying any advertising sign, notice or placard and being used solely or principally for advertising or publicity purposes while so left or placed on such public place.

205 Flammables

205.1 No person shall leave any flammable materials or matter on any public place without having first obtained the permission of the local authority.

206 Trailing Timber and Causing Damage

206.1 No person shall draw or trail any building or other structure on skids or trolleys or otherwise or any sledge, timber, or other material upon any public place so as to obstruct or cause damage to such public place.

207 Drippings from Eaves

207.1 No person shall cause, permit, or suffer the drippings of the eaves or other projections of any house or structure to fall upon any public place.

208 Disturbing Surface of Street

208.1 No person shall open any drain or sewer on, or disturb or remove the surface of, any public place, or make any cellar door or other opening from such public place without having first obtained the permission of the local authority, and except in accordance with such conditions as may be imposed.

209 Precautions Against Injury

209.1 No person shall omit when opening up on any street to take all such precautions for guarding against injury to the passers along such street as may be necessary or as may be directed by the local authority or its authorised officer.

210 Securing Foundations

210.1 No person shall omit or neglect to secure and maintain the foundations of any building or any wall or fence, or cause or permit any encroachment by any building, wall, or fence abutting on any public place, whereby such place is or may be damaged or obstructed.

211 Exposing Articles for Sale, or Suspending from Veranda

211.1 No person shall expose for sale any article whatsoever on any footway, or outside of any shop, shop window, or doorway abutting on any public place, so as to encroach on or over the public place, without the prior permission of the local authority, and then only in accordance with such conditions as the local authority may think fit to impose.

212 Leaving Dead Animals or Depositing Offensive Matter

212.1 No person shall:-

- (a) Throw or leave any dead animal or part thereof, or animal remains, or offensive matter of any kind, upon any public place, or into any river, creek, stream, or other water, or on the bank thereof; or
- (b) Fail to dispose of in a proper manner the body or part of the body of any animal belonging to him, or in his charge or keeping, that may have been killed or died whilst straying, or while being driven on any public place.

213 Acts of Games to Annoyance of Persons

213.1 No person shall roll any cask, propel, push, or pull any trolley or other similar contrivance, fly any kite, use any bow or arrow or other projectile, bowl any hoop, case, throw or project any stone or other missile, by hand, catapult, shangai, or otherwise, or play any game in or on any public place, to the damage, annoyance, danger, inconvenience, or obstruction of any person or property.

214 Sounding of Musical Instruments, Use of Loud Speakers and Disturbance of Neighbourhood

214.1 No person shall:-

- (a) In any street or public place:-
- (i) Sing or play any musical instrument, preach, read aloud, lecture, sell or cry wares or exhibit any object or thing, without the consent of the local authority, and then only subject to such conditions in every respect as the local authority may impose; or
 - (ii) Make any noise or any loud sounds, or cause or by conduct invite others to do any of the aforesaid acts whereby the peace and quiet of any persons residing in or using or being in any neighbouring houses or buildings, is disturbed, or whereby the proceedings of any congregation or meeting is disturbed, or annoyance is caused to any such congregation, assemblage or meeting;
- (b) Use any loud speaker or similar device on any street or public place, or on any park or reserve vested in the control of the local authority, unless the permission of the local authority has first been obtained and then only subject to such terms and conditions as the local authority in granting such permission may impose, provided that this section shall not apply to the reproduction in reasonable volume of recorded music, or of radio programmes from an authorised broadcasting station; or
- (c) Play or permit or suffer the playing of any musical instrument, or operate or permit or suffer the operation of any loud speaker, megaphone, radio or television set, bell or other similar device -
- (i) In any street or public place where such playing makes or causes to be made noise which is likely to cause annoyance or nuisance to persons in the street or public place or residing in the vicinity thereof; or
 - (ii) In or upon any land or buildings licensed or used for dances, fairs, amusement parks, amusement parlours, skating rinks or other similar entertainment, where such playing or operation makes or causes to be made, noise which is likely to cause annoyance or nuisance to persons in any street or public place or resident in the vicinity of that land or those buildings.

214.2 Without in anyway restricting the power of the local authority to initiate proceedings for a breach of clause 214.1 hereof the local authority shall upon receipt of the complaint signed by at least 3 residents alleging that any person has caused nuisance to them by a breach of clause 214.1 hereof, issue a notice to the person complained against requiring that person to show cause why he should not be proceeded against for breach of clause 214.1 hereof provided that where the local authority issues a notice pursuant to this subclause no proceedings shall be initiated against any person for a breach of clause 214.1 hereof until the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice.

215 Placards on Buildings, Posts

215.1 No person shall:-

- (a) Place any placard, poster, or other document on, or write, paint, print, draw, or stencil on, or otherwise disfigure or deface, any building or any wall, fence, statue, lamp post, veranda post, gate, telegraph or telephone post, or electric light or power post, or any waiting-shed, convenience, rubbish receptacle, fireplug notice plate, or urinal, or upon anything whatsoever erected in or constructed or standing on or abutting any public place; or

- (b) Stamp, stain, paint, write, print, or post any advertisement or notice upon any public place or kerbstone, or steps, except with the prior written authority of the local authority and then only in conformity with the terms of any permit that may be granted; or
- (c) Upon or over any carriageway or footpath of any public place display or carry any placard, board, flag, screen, or frame by way of advertisement, unless permission in writing in that behalf shall have been obtained from the local authority.

216 Exposing or Distributing Indecent Matter

216.1 No person shall expose to view or distribute or offer for sale in any public place any placard, handbill, print, or other document whatsoever of any offensive or indecent character.

217 Blasting Without Authority

217.1 No person shall blast any rock, stone, earth, timber, or other such material in, on, or near any public place, without having first obtained permission of the local authority; or fail to comply with any directions or conditions in regard thereto given or imposed by the local authority.

218 Fireworks

218.1 No person shall set off any fireworks or explosive material in or on any public place without the permission of the local authority, or so near to any such public place as to endanger, annoy or frighten passers-by along such public place.

219 Placing Obstructions

219.1 No person shall place any obstruction or permit or allow any such obstruction to remain in or upon any public place, or in or upon any water-course, channel, or river, whereby life or limb is likely to be endangered, or in any way obstruct the free flow of water in any stream or water-course.

220 Disrepair of Covers to Cellars

220.1 No person shall fail to keep in good repair any rail, gate, fence, or cover over or about any area or entrance to lighting place to any cellar, or other place opening into or upon or near any public place, or keep open for more than a reasonable time, for taking in or out any articles, any entrance to any such area, cellar, or other place, or omit to protect such entrance when open for use.

221 Damaging Pumps etc or Polluting Water

221.1 No person shall destroy, damage, pollute, or obstruct any pump, watercourse, water race, fountain, water trough, or drinking fountain on any public place.

222 Damage to Property of Local Authority

222.1 No person shall:-

- (a) Wilfully or maliciously damage or destroy, or do, permit, or suffer any act tending to damage or destroy any growing tree, shrub, or other plant of any kind whatsoever belonging to the local authority, wherever the same shall be growing; or any building, erection, structure, or other property of any kind or description belonging to the local authority; or
- (b) Wilfully or maliciously extinguish or damage or break any street lamp, or break or damage any lamp post, or break, damage or remove or interfere with any warning lights, signs, or barricades placed by the local authority to warn the public of danger.

223 Generally Obstructing

223.1 No person shall wilfully or negligently encumber or obstruct a public place in any manner not hereinbefore specially described.

224 Inducing Congregating so as to Cause Inconvenience

224.1 No person shall make, do, or suffer any act, matter, or thing, either on any public place or on land adjacent thereto, whereby or in consequence whereof other persons may be caused or induced to collect or congregate on any public place so as to impede the traffic on such public place, or cause an obstruction or impede or annoy, inconvenience, or incommode person passing.

225 Improper Assembly

225.1 No person shall except with the prior written authority of the Clerk and then only in conformity with the terms of any permit that may be granted:-

- (a) Organise, hold, or conduct or attempt to hold or conduct any procession whether vehicular or pedestrian or partly vehicular and partly pedestrian, or of any other type whatsoever, or any public meeting, gathering or demonstration, or make any public address or attempt to collect a crowd in, along or upon any public place or on land adjacent thereto where that crowd may encroach on to any public place; or
- (b) Take part in any unauthorised meeting or assembly or congregate or so conduct himself on any public place as to in any way impede traffic or cause an obstruction, or incommode any person passing thereon, or taken part in any unauthorised procession in, along or upon any public place.

226 Profane Singing or Drawing

226.1 No person shall:-

- (a) Use any profane, indecent or obscene language in any public place or within the hearing of any person in such public place; or
- (b) Paint, draw, or write any profane, indecent or obscene representation, figure or word in or on any public place, or in or on any building or place to which the public are admitted or have access.

227 Distributing Pamphlets without Authority

227.1 No person shall without the permission of the local authority first obtained, in any public place, distribute handbills, tickets, pamphlets or other printed matter to any other person.

228 Hail or Snow

228.1 No person shall deposit any hail or snow in such a manner as to cause undue accumulations thereof in any channel or carriageway or upon any paved crossing.

229 Street Tidies

229.1 No person shall make use of any street tidy or other public refuse receptacle for the purpose of placing or depositing therein any offensive matter or any household, shop, office, or trade refuse of any description.

230 Awnings and Blinds

230.1 No person shall erect or maintain, or cause to be erected or maintained, any awning over any public place, or hang the awning, blind, or screen from any portico on any public place, unless the permission of the local authority shall have first been obtained and then subject to such conditions as may be imposed. Any such permission may be revoked at any time by the local authority.

231 Loitering

231.1 No person shall:-

- (a) Loiter or stand or hang about or remain in any one place on any public place after being directed to move on by any constable, traffic officer, or inspector appointed by the local authority; or
- (b) Loiter in or about the entrance to any premises abutting on a public place after having been requested to move on by the owner or occupier of such premises or by a constable, traffic officer, or inspector appointed by the local authority.

232 Doors, Gates, to Swing Inwards

232.1 No person shall hang, permit, or suffer to be hung any door or gate abutting on any public place so as to render it capable of being swung over or across such public place.

233 No Building to be Erected on Public Place

233.1 No person shall:-

- (a) Erect, construct, or place any building or other structure or erection whatsoever, or any part thereof, under, upon, over, or across any public place or any part thereof without the prior written authority of the local authority so to do; or

- (b) Use any dwelling or any vehicle for the purposes of temporary living accommodation on any portion of any public place without the written permission of the local authority and subject to such conditions as the local authority may impose.

234 Encroachment to be Removed Upon Notice

- 234.1 If any building or other structure or any part thereof shall have been erected, constructed or placed upon, under, over or across any public place, the local authority may by notice require the owner of such building or structure to remove the same or such part thereof as shall have been so erected, constructed or placed.
- 234.2 Any such notice may require such precautions to be taken as the local authority shall think fit for the safety of the public and for the proper securing of so much (if any) of such building or structure as is to remain after such removal.

235 Projections on Public Places not Permitted

- 235.1 No person shall put any portico, projecting window, balcony, wall, lamp, door step, cellar door, lamp post, signboard, window shutter, gate-post, or other obstruction or projection of any kind whatsoever in such a position as to interfere with or obstruct in any way the free passage of traffic upon any public place.
- 235.2 If any such projection or obstruction as aforesaid placed or made against or in front of any building before the coming into operation or in front of any building before the coming into operation of this Part of this bylaw, contrary to any Act or bylaw lawfully in force and otherwise than in accordance with the provision of this Part of this bylaw shall project or encroach into, over, or upon any public place or part thereof, the local authority may give notice to the owner or occupier of such building to remove, or in such manner as the local authority shall by notice require, to alter such projection or obstruction, and such owner or occupier shall, within the time stated in such notice, remove, or in manner aforesaid respectively alter, such projection or obstruction.

236 Lighting of Obstructions and Holes and Stacking of Materials

- 236.1 If any person shall place or leave, or permit to be placed or left, on any public place any building material rubbish, or any other thing whatsoever likely to cause any obstruction or danger to any person or vehicle upon such public place (whether the same be done by authority of the local authority or not), such person shall cause to be fixed and maintained thereon, or there thereto, from sunset in any day to sunrise in the next day in such positions as may be necessary sufficient lighted lamps of a type approved by the local authority adequately to indicate the existence of the same.
- 236.2 If any person shall make or dig, or cause to be made or dug, in any public place any hole or excavation whatsoever, such person shall cause to be fixed and maintained thereover, or near thereto, from sunset in any day to sunrise in the next day in such positions as may be necessary sufficient lighted lamps adequately to indicate the existence of such hole or excavation.
- 236.3 Every such person shall also cause such material or other things to be kept properly stacked or piled, or such hole to be kept sufficiently fenced and enclosed.

236.4 No person shall permit or suffer any building material or other thing as mentioned in clause 236.1 or any hole or excavation placed, left, made or dug on or in any public place (whether with or without the authority of the local authority) to remain therein for a longer period than is reasonably necessary.

237 Deleted

238 Permit Required for Erection of Brick, Stone etc. Fence

238.1 No person shall erect on the street frontage of any property a fence constructed wholly or partly of brick, stone or concrete, without the written permission of the local authority.

238.2 No permission shall be granted for the erection of any such fence unless the design of such fence showing the dimensions, foundations, and materials thereof and line of intersection of underground services has been submitted to and approved by the Engineer.

239 Repair of Fences

239.1 Where any fence abutting on a public place is so out of repair as to be in the opinion of the Engineer dangerous to persons passing, the local authority may by notice in writing require the owner or occupier to repair or remove such fence or to remove such fence and erect in lieu thereof a sufficient fence with in the meaning of the Fencing Act 1978, or such other type of fence as may be approved in writing by the local authority.

239.2 The owner or occupier of any land upon whom such notice is served shall comply with the same within the time stated in such notice.

240 Crossings

240.1 No person shall drive, ride, propel, or wheel any motor vehicle, or lead any cattle (as hereinafter defined), across any footway or water channel in any public place otherwise than upon and by means of a crossing properly constructed under the provisions of this Part of this bylaw or heretofore constructed in accordance with all bylaws of the local authority in force at the time of such construction.

240.2 Except with the permission of the Engineer no person shall after the coming into force of this Part of this bylaw construct any crossing across any footway or water channel or repair, reconstruct, renew, or do any work whatsoever in connection with any existing crossing.

240.3 Any person desiring the construction, repair, reconstruction, or renewal of any crossing shall make application in writing to the Engineer and the Engineer may:-

- (a) Upon receipt of such sum of money as he shall require as payment for the work applied for, carry out and execute such work as soon as practicable; or
- (b) At his discretion and subject to the payment of such deposit and such inspection fee as he required, permit the application to carry out the work to such standards as the Engineer may lay down, provided that the deposit shall be refunded if the work is completed to the satisfaction of the Engineer; or

- (c) Refuse to carry out such work or to permit such work to be carried out if in his opinion the existence of any such crossing causes or may be likely to cause any danger or obstruction in any public place.

240.4 If in his opinion any crossing is in a bad or unsafe state of repair, the Engineer may forthwith remove such crossing and may by notice in writing under his hand require the owner or occupier of any premises to which such crossing provides access to pay such sum of money as shall be necessary in the opinion of the engineer to repair, reconstruct, or renew such crossing, and every such owner who shall fail to comply with any such notice within the period therein specified shall be guilty of an offence against this Part of this bylaw.

240.5 If in the opinion of the Engineer it is necessary that a properly constructed crossing or crossings be constructed to protect any footway, channel or grass plot in any public place from damage or injury which might be caused by driving, riding, propelling or wheeling of any vehicles or cattle upon, over or across any such footway, channel or grass plot he may by notice in writing under his hand inform the owner or occupier of the premises to which such crossing or crossings would provide access of that opinion and require such owner or occupier to pay to the local authority within the period specified in such notice such sum of money as in the opinion of the Engineer would be necessary to construct the said crossing or crossings. Every owner or occupier who shall fail to comply with in such notice within the period therein specified shall guilty of an offence against this Part of this Bylaw.

241 Temporary Crossings

241.1 No person shall take or drive a motor vehicle or permit the same to be taken or driven across any footway or water channel in the course of construction of other work on the adjoining property or to deliver or collect building or other materials used in connection therewith except with the prior written permission of the Engineer and subject to such terms and conditions as he may impose, including if required by the Engineer, the provision for a crossing the temporary purposes over the footway or water channel.

241.2 Except with the permission of the Engineer, all crossings constructed under this clause shall be lighted between sunset of one day and sunrise of the next day, and the street channels shall be left clear from obstacles.

242 Reinforcing of Footways

242.1 Where any land or premises is at any time or from time to time so occupied or used that, in the usual course of the business carried on thereat or thereon or in connection therewith, any materials, goods, merchandise, articles, or things whatsoever are dropped or deposited upon or conveyed across any footway, water channel or crossing in such a manner as to be likely to damage such footway, water channel or crossing the engineer may from time to time, by notice in writing under his hand, require the owner or occupier of such land or premises to provide adequate reinforcement to such footway, channel, or crossing.

242.2 Every such owner or occupier who shall fail to comply with any such notice within the period therein specified shall be guilty of an offence against this Part of this bylaw.

242.3 The Engineer shall:-

- (a) Upon receipt of such sum of money as he shall require as payment for the work carried out and execute such work as soon as practicable; or
- (b) At his discretion and subject to the payment of such deposit and such inspection fee as he requires, permit the applicant to carry out the work to such standards as he may lay down, provided that the deposit shall be refunded if the work is completed to his satisfaction.

243 Naming of Streets

243.1 No person shall give any name to or affix, set up, or paint any name on any street, private street, or public place without the prior permission in writing of the local authority.

244 Street Numbering of Buildings

244.1 Every building shall at all times be marked with the number allocated to that building by the Council pursuant to s.319B of the Local Government Act 1974.

244.2 If at any time the Council (in exercise of its powers under s.319B of the Local Government Act 1974) alters the number of a building, the marking must be altered to comply with that change within one calendar month of written notification of the change being given by the Council to the owner or occupier of the building.

244.3 Building marking shall be comprised of characters which:

- (a) Subject to clause 244.4, comply with the specification in clause 244.5;
- (b) Are affixed or placed in a position which is readily visible from the street to which the building has frontage and either:
 - (i) upon a post, fence, gate or letterbox located immediately adjacent to the street boundary; or
 - (ii) if there is no such post, fence, gate or letterbox, upon the building itself.

244.4 Nothing in clause 244.3 shall be construed as requiring the marking which existed on 31 May 2003, and which complied with this Bylaw at that date, to be changed or replaced prior to 31 July 2005.

244.5 Building marking shall comply with the following:

- (a) residential building shall be marked with characters which are:
 - (i) not less than 50mm in height and 30mm in overall width (except for the number "1" or the letter "I");
 - (ii) made out of lines not less than 3mm in width;
- (b) all other building shall be marked with characters which are:

- (i) not less than 75mm in height and 40mm in overall width (except for the number "1" or the letter "I");
- (ii) made out of lines not less than 5mm in width.

244.6 Building marking shall be maintained in good legible and visible condition at all times. Any marking which is covered up or obscured shall be immediately uncovered. Any marking which is obliterated or defaced shall be immediately replaced.

244.7 Responsibility for compliance with this clause lies with the owner and occupier for the time being of any building but the fact that the owner of a building is not the occupier of that building shall not be a defence to a conviction for an offence against this Bylaw.

244.8 Any person who neglects for one month after written notice to mark a building in accordance with this part of this Bylaw commits an offence.

245 Defacing Names and Numbers

245.1 Every person shall be guilty of an offence against this Part of this bylaw who wilfully or maliciously destroys, pulls down, obliterates, or defaces the name of any street, or the number of any building, or paints, affixes, or sets up any name of any street, or any number to any building, contrary to the provisions of this Part of this bylaw.

246 Cattle and Sheep Defined

246.1 For the purpose of this Part of this bylaw:

"Cattle" means and includes any horse, mare, gelding, colt, filly, or foal; any bull, cow, ox steer, heifer, or calf; any ass or mule; any goat, and any boar, sow or other pig.

"Sheep" means and includes any ram, ewe, wether, or lamb.

247 Animals Wandering

247.1 Every person being the owner or having the care, custody, or control of any cattle or sheep shall keep and prevent the same from wandering or being at large without proper guidance on any public place.

248 Tethering

248.1 Without the prior permission of the local authority, no person shall tether or otherwise put or place any cattle or sheep, for the purposes of pasturing or grazing the same, on any public place.

248.2 If any cattle or sheep shall be found on any public place, or on any land not separated by a sufficient fence from any public place, without any person having charge thereof, the owner thereof shall be guilty of an offence against this Part of this bylaw.

248.3 No person shall allow cattle or sheep to loiter in any public place whether such cattle or sheep be under control of any person or not; and every person having the control of any cattle or sheep whilst the same are being driven on any public place shall continuously drive them towards a definite destination without deviation from the most direct route, or the route directed by the local authority and at reasonable speed.

249 Driving Cattle or Sheep

249.1 Except as may be provided pursuant to clause 249.2 of this clause, no person shall drive any cattle or sheep not in harness or yoke on any public place, except with the prior permission in writing of the Clerk, and then only in accordance in all respects with all conditions which may be imposed in granting such permission.

249.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 249.1 hereof, cattle and sheep may be driven:-

- (a) At all times along such streets as may be prescribed from time to time by resolution of Council;
- (b) Along the streets prescribed by resolution of Council from time to time, during the hours provided in the resolution; or
- (c) At all times along any street from one paddock to another, if both paddocks or farms are the property of one owner; provided that the distance along the street is not greater than 3.2km.

Provided always that this subclause shall not authorise persons to drive at any one time a greater number than 20 cattle or a greater number than 1,000 sheep, not shall it authorise any person to drive or take any bull on any public place otherwise than by leading the same by a sufficient rope or other sufficient means of control, unless it is accompanied by cows.

249.3 Alternatively, the local authority may from time to time by special order publicly notified declare certain roads to be stock routes and prohibit or restrict the use of any other roads for the driving of cattle or sheep. Any such declaration, prohibition or restriction may from time to time in like manner be altered or revoked.

250 Miscellaneous Offences

250.1 Any person shall be guilty of an offence against this Part of this bylaw who:-

- (a) Breaks in, trains, cleans, shoes, bleeds, dresses, or exposes for show, hire or sale, any horse or other animal on any public place;
- (b) Repairs any motor vehicle on any public place, except in case of the occurrence of an accident or breakdown when repair on the spot is necessary;
- (c) Allows any vicious biting horse to stand on any public place, unless properly and securely muzzled;
- (d) Shall, by ill usage or negligence in driving any cattle along or over any public place, permit any injury or mischief to be done by such cattle.
