URGENT NOTIFICATION OF ROAD HAZARD

[Pursuant to Section 21 Land Transport Act 1998]

Section 21 (a)(b) Land Transport Act 1998 - Enforcement Officers to ameliorate hazards

If an enforcement officer, acting in the course of his or her official duties, becomes aware of the existence on a road of a hazard to the safety of traffic (whether arising from the nature or condition of a road or otherwise), the officer must -

- (a) take such steps as may be reasonably practicable to eliminate or reduce the hazard; and
- (b) if it is not reasonably practicable for the officer to eliminate the hazard, as soon as practicable report the existence of the hazard to the road controlling authority with a view to eliminating the hazard.
