INTRODUCTION

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF DELEGATION

The following matters cannot legally be delegated to Committees, Subcommittees, Community Boards, officers or any other subordinate decision-making body (Clause 32(1) of Schedule 7 of the Local Government Act 2002).

- (a) The power to make a rate.
- (b) The power to make a bylaw.
- (c) The power to borrow money, or purchase or dispose of assets, other than in accordance with the Long Term Council Community Plan.
- (d) The power to adopt a Long Term Council Community Plan, Annual Plan, or Annual Report.
- (e) The power to appoint a Chief Executive Officer.
- (f) The power to adopt policies required to be adopted and consulted on under the Local Government Act 2002 in association with the Long Term Council Community Plan or developed for the purpose of the Local Governance Statement.

When an Act or Regulation empowering the "Council" to carry out a decision-making function, that decision must be made by way of a resolution of the full Council unless the Act or Regulation, permits delegation to a Committee, Subcommittee or Officer.

Without delegation the operation of the Council and its administration would not be efficient, effective and timely in delivering services. The business to be transacted by a Council and its administration is large and wide-ranging, dealing with the details of many Acts and Regulations, the Council's District Plan, Bylaws, and a range of Council functions and activities.

It is impossible for the elected Council to deal with everything itself. The principle of subsidiarity should therefore apply, that is, decisions should be made at the lowest possible level commensurate with efficiency and effectiveness. Generally, the legislation, which the Council uses on a day-to-day basis, provides for delegations. The fields of activity and delegations in this Register are intended to reflect the principles of subsidiarity to allow the Council to delegate its powers and functions to the most efficient and effective levels.

The body or person to whom powers are delegated will usually exercise the delegated power, but is not obliged to do so. The most common circumstances where the body or person with the delegation might choose not to exercise it is when the matter has become a matter of public notoriety, or the issues are contentious and finely balanced.

A67

COUNCIL COMMITTEE PRINCIPLES

On 29 November 2000 Waitakere City Council adopted a number of Governance Policies. The policy relating to committees is set out as follows:

COUNCIL COMMITTEE PRINCIPLES

Policy Type - Governance Process

Council Committees, when used, will be assigned responsibility in a way that reinforces the wholeness of the Council's job and does not interfere with the delegation from the Council to the Chief Executive Officer.

1. Council Committees will ordinarily assist the Council carry out its governance job by preparing policy alternatives and implications for Council deliberation. They should not extend their work into operational areas helping or advising the Chief Executive Officer and staff. Unless specifically delegated authority to do so, Council Committees may not instruct the Chief Executive Officer and staff beyond reasonable requests for information and advice. If, in the Chief Executive Officer's opinion, meeting such requests would consume a material amount of staff time or funds outside those budgeted, or would be disruptive, the Chief Executive Officer should refer the request to the Council.
2. Council Committees may not speak for the Council except when formally given such authority for specific and time-limited purposes. Expectations and authority will be carefully stated in order not to conflict with authority delegated to the Chief Executive Officer.
3. Because the Chief Executive Officer works for the Council as a whole, s/he will not be required to obtain the approval of a Committee before taking an executive action.
4. Council Committees are to avoid over-identification with Council parts rather than the whole. Therefore a Council Committee that has helped the Council create policy on some topic will not be used to monitor Council performance on that same subject.
5. While the Council may delegate authority to committees, including the monitoring of performance within their areas of responsibility, the Council remains at all times the superior body.
6. This policy applies to any group that is formed by Council action whether or not it is called a committee and regardless of whether the group includes Council Members. It does not apply to Committees formed under the authority of the Chief Executive Officer.

COMMITTEES

The law relating to Committees is generally to be found in Schedule 7 of the Local Government Act 2002. Unless otherwise stated, references to clauses are references to clauses in Schedule 7.

While a Committee may include persons other than Elected Members (other than under Section 12 Fencing of Swimming Pools Act 1987), it must include at least one Elected Member. Council officers may only be appointed to Subcommittees (Clause 31(4)). The minimum number of Members of a Committee is three, (Clause 31(6)(a)) with a quorum being two, including at least one Elected Member, (Clause 23(3)(b)).

A Committee may delegate any of its functions, duties, or powers to a Subcommittee, subject to any conditions, limitations, or prohibitions imposed by the Council or Committee. A Subcommittee may comprise Elected Members or staff (Clause 31(4)(b)) or other persons but the minimum number of elected members is two (Clause 31(6)(b)).

A68

A decision made by a Committee under delegated powers which decides, prescribes or affects the rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties or liabilities of a person, or that person's eligibility to receive or continue to receive a benefit or licence, cannot be rescinded or amended by the Council unless there is specific empowering statutory authority. The Council may however review policy matters falling outside of the foregoing categories from time to time.

Revocation or alteration of decisions may only be dealt with in accordance with the Council's Standing Orders.

The Council can also delegate certain powers to officers. Delegations to the Chief Executive Officer are listed in a separate Register. Staff receive their delegations from the Chief Executive Officer.

COMMUNITY BOARDS

A Community Board is a separate legal entity to the Council. It is not a committee of the Council.

Section 51 of the Local Government Act 2002 states that a Community Board is:

- (a) An unincorporated body.
- (b) Not a local authority.
- (c) Not a committee of the relevant territorial authority.

The role of a Community Board is set out in Section 52 of the Local Government Act (and is set out in the section of this Register relating to Community Boards). The delegation of powers to by the Council to Community Boards is provided for in Clause 32.

THE ROLE OF COMMITTEES AND SUBCOMMITTEES

Clause 30(1)(a)) enables Council to appoint such Committees, Subcommittees and other subordinate decision making bodies, as it considers appropriate.

A Council Committee may appoint the Subcommittees that it considers appropriate unless it is prohibited from doing so by the terms of its delegation from the Council (Clause 30). Every Subcommittee is subject to the control of the Council, or Committee that appointed it. A Committee can only set up a Subcommittee within its field of activity and delegated powers, and it may delegate any of its functions, duties and powers to the Subcommittee.

In this Register a "field of activity" is a specific activity or function which the Standing Committee or Subcommittee has responsibility for. "Delegated Powers" define what the Committee or Subcommittee is allowed to do.

The Council determines the fields of activities for its Committees and Subcommittees. Committees and Subcommittees may generally deal with all matters covered by their respective fields of activity for which financial provision has been made but subject to any conditions set by the Council.

Statutory matters that do not have to be dealt with by the Council are delegated to either Committees or Subcommittees within their respective fields of activity.

Provision for 'Joint Committees' with other local authorities or public bodies is provided for in Clause 30 (1)(b).

A69

Final decisions can be made by Committees and Subcommittees only on those matters where authority to make decisions has been delegated. All other decisions must be in the form of recommendations to the Council, or, in the case of Special Committees or Subcommittees to the parent Committee. Recommendations may extend over any of the items included in, or similar to, the Committee's or Subcommittee's fields of activity. Committees can delegate final decision-making power to Subcommittees, but only in relation to matters within the delegated authority of the Committee and only subject to any conditions imposed on such a delegation by the Council itself (Schedule 7 Clause 32), or limitations imposed by statute.

While Schedule 7 Clause 30 (3) makes it clear that every Committee is "subject in all things to the control of the Council and shall carry out all general and special directions ...", the Council is not entitled to rescind or amend a decision made by a Committee exercising a delegated authority to make the decision (Clause 30(6)).

PRINCIPLES OF COUNCIL'S COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

The Council's Committee structures (as laid out in these delegations) have been based on the following governance principles:

1. There should be appropriate separation between the Council's strategy and policy development functions, its role in monitoring finances and operational performance, and its role in regulatory matters (see 39(c) of the Local Government Act 2002).
2. Special Committees and Subcommittees (to support the main Committees) will focus specifically on key areas requiring that additional focus.
3. The role of the Te Taumata Runanga as a key advisory committee of the Council representing Iwi and the wider Maori community of Waitakere City should be continued.

AMBIGUITY AND CONFLICT

In the event of ambiguity or conflict between any of the provisions contained in the Delegations Register, with the result that there is uncertainty or dispute as to which committee, subcommittee or community board has the delegated authority to act in respect of a particular matter, then the Chief Executive Officer will prepare a written report in respect of that uncertainty or dispute and submit the same to the Mayor (or the Deputy Mayor in the absence of the Mayor) for consideration and determination. The decision of the Mayor (or Deputy Mayor in the absence of the Mayor) will be final and binding.

If neither the Mayor nor the Deputy Mayor is available the decision of the Chief Executive Officer will be final and binding.
